New business offers 'errand service'

BUSY parents can take advantage of a new business offering an 'errand service' - helping with tasks like collecting dry cleaning or queuing to post a parcel.

Pink Spaghetti Home PA Services is teaming up with the new Kids Planet Day Nursery in Eagle Brow, Lymm, to offer parents exclusive use of its Nursery Errand Service.

It aims to offer a cost effective way of getting errands done. After registering parents receive an errand list that they complete and leave at the nursery.

The errands use suppliers in the Lymm area and range from dropping off and collecting dry cleaning to queuing at the Post Office to post a parcel or pay a bill.

Pink Spaghetti's co-founders, Vicky

Mathews and Caroline Gowing, are both working mums who realised there was not enough help for busy parents.

The two women met at their daughters' swimming classes four years ago and decided to use this link in their company name. The children's favourite food is spaghetti and favourite colour pink - so the company name was born.

Caroline said: "We wanted to bring the benefits of a concierge service to normal people who lead everyday but busy lives which is why we are targeting parents."

"These days it is quite common for people to have help with their cleaning, ironing or gardening and so we thought we could take that concept one step further and offer a service that could really make parents lives a bit easier."

The service offers help with "mundane" tasks to allow parents to spend more time with their families. Tasks such as organising a birthday party, finding a family holiday or organising a baby sitter for a special night out, can all be delegated.

Anyone interested should contact Vicky or Caroline at enquiries@pink-spaghetti.co.uk or visit their website at www.pink-spaghetti.co.uk

Rotary sponsor student awards

THREE students have been sponsored by the Rotary Club of Lymm for a prestigious award.

Ellis Davies, of Lymm High School, and two students from Broadoak School, Portington, Simon Holt and Jamie Gallagher, were selected for the first ever Rotary Youth Leadership Award to be conducted in District 1280.

Talented youngsters, some related to Rotary members, are chosen from local schools and groups for the scheme.

They attended a series of outdoor activities involving leadership and team building skills over a five day residential course at Petty Pool Trust Outdoor Centre, Sandiway. Students said they gained confidence and developed their leadership skills during the course.

Simon also won the Gold Award for Outstanding Leadership Qualities.

The course will be running next year during the summer holidays and anyone wishing to propose candidates should contact club secretary Neville Davies 01925 755757 or Email: kothandnev@uwclub.net for more information.
