

YOUR 25TH HOUR IN THE DAY

Social media packages

Out of time?

Business owners know the importance of social media, but often do not have the time, knowledge or inclination to run them.

YOU SET THE TONE

We do the work, but make it sound like it's consistently coming from you

WE'LL PLAN & CREATE CONTENT

If you're not sure how, we'll plan and create compelling social media content, always keeping you authentic.

MONITOR AND REVIEW

if you haven't got numbers, how do you know how well you're doing? Audits with our Health Checks are useful for success too.

Social media is an essential

Social media is a powerful and free tool for your small business, and we can help make it work for you. Your customers want to interact with you through channels that suit them and it's important to meet them in their favourite spaces. More and more customers use social media to back up a decision to make contact or see if a company is reputable and still open.

Fully flexible

Many clients know what they would like to achieve and we work in partnership delivering as they request, be it more images or longer articles. Others just want to ensure regular posting with plenty of engagement. Social media marketing can also feel overwhelming, so as a natural extension of freeing you up with other work, our virtual assistants can look after your social media too.

We look after social media accounts on these platforms:

- LinkedIn
- Facebook
- Instagram
- Twitter
- Houzz
- Pinterest

To talk about other platforms, please contact us

Affordable Social Media

We are experts in working with small businesses and looking after their social media, having done so for many years. This is a fast-moving area, with new developments and tools being added to platforms all the time. We make sure we know how we can use them to each client's advantage.

Using this experience, we have identified three packages which work best for most of our clients as listed on the next page. Even so, our approach is always flexible and we are here to meet our clients' needs.

The next step is simple

Microbusiness owners are not about to spend big fees on a social media agency and this is where we come in, offering flexibility and affordability alongside expertise and knowledge.

Please contact us to arrange a no obligation call - we are always happy to chat through what you want to achieve, your budget and how we can support your business.
